

THE HUMAN CHESS GAME 2010

Also this year, the famous Chess Game of Marostica with living people is represented on the great marble chessboard in the Castle square. This antique event takes place every second Sunday of September on even numbered years and it involves over 600 characters wearing medieval clothes.

A dive into the historical and folkloristic tradition of the Veneto region, with the opportunity to discover its local tastes and flavours... from the past until now!
